

Sri Raja Rajeswary Amman Temple

ஸ்ரீ இராஜ ராஜேஸ்வரி அம்மன் கோயில்

On Sunday 13th October, the Sri Raja Rajeswary Amman Temple in Stoneleigh, Epsom welcomed over 70 elderly members of the Age Concern Epsom & Ewell Community to visit the Temple and enjoy an array of musical and cultural performances.

Performances of Mridangam (traditional drum), and Bharathanatyam (ancient South Indian Dance Form), and Carnatic singing were conducted by children learning their cultural art forms at the Temple. The guests were welcomed inside the Temple which was colourful and ornately sculpted when the Temple was established in 1999. The Temple is dedicated to a Goddess called Sri Raja Rajeswary Amman, known as the ever-pervading Mother of love and grace.

The Temple has a busy yearly calendar with festivals almost every month, and will be celebrating Deepavali, also known as Diwali on 31st October.

This festival represents the victory of good over evil, righteousness over non-righteousness, and light over dark. Many of the Hindu community in Epsom will be visiting the Temple as well as friends and family to celebrate this auspicious day in the Hindu Calendar.

On behalf of everyone at Age Concern Epsom & Ewell, we would like to thank Sri Raja Rajeswary Amman Temple community for such welcoming hospitality, for sharing your customs with us and for the opportunity to visit your beautiful temple. Our clients, volunteers and staff members had a wonderful afternoon.

We wish you all a

HAPPY Diwali

May the divine light of Diwali illuminate your life with peace, prosperity, and happiness.
